

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

A Free Press, a Free Ballot, and Free Speech, are the Birthright of Freedmen.

VOL. VII.

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1883.

NO. 32.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38

39

40

41

42

43

44

45

46

47

48

49

50

51

52

53

54

55

56

57

58

59

60

61

62

63

64

65

66

67

68

69

70

71

72

73

74

75

76

77

78

79

80

81

82

83

84

85

86

87

88

89

90

91

92

93

94

95

96

97

98

99

100

101

102

103

104

105

106

107

108

109

110

111

112

113

114

115

116

117

118

119

120

121

122

123

124

125

126

127

128

129

130

131

132

133

134

135

136

137

138

139

140

141

142

143

144

145

146

147

148

149

150

151

152

153

154

155

156

157

158

159

160

161

162

163

164

165

166

167

168

169

170

171

172

173

174

175

176

177

178

179

180

181

182

183

184

185

186

187

188

189

190

191

192

193

194

195

196

197

198

199

200

201

202

203

204

205

206

207

208

209

210

211

212

213

214

215

216

217

218

219

220

221

222

223

224

225

226

227

228

229

230

231

232

233

234

235

236

237

238

239

240

241

242

243

244

245

246

247

248

249

250

251

252

253

254

255

256

257

258

259

260

261

262

263

264

265

266

267

268

269

270

271

272

273

274

275

276

277

278

279

280

281

282

283

284

285

286

287

288

289

290

291

292

293

294

295

296

297

298

299

300

I RECKENRIDGE NEWS.
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1883.

Traveling Agents.
Mr. L. A. Footh of Hinsdale, is our regularly authorized Traveling Agent and Correspondent.

PERSONAL.

Mr. David Fairleigh, of Bradenburg, is in town.
Miss Anna West is visiting her seat, Mrs. J. A. Whit, at Bradenburg.

John Morris left for Evansville Sunday, where he will enter the law college.

Mary Hayes is at St. Joseph's Infirmary, Louisville, and is going along very well.

Misses E. F. and Mary Clegg, of Hardinsburg, are here for the Kentucky sight.

Mr. W. S. Gabbert, of South Covington, was visiting his son, C. C. Gabbert, at Louisville.

Dr. George and Esther, Miss Luisa, were in town Monday, the guests of Dr. Mr. White.

Mr. J. R. Simons has been quite ill for the past three weeks, and is still confined to his bed.

Miss Nannie Jolly, of Hardinsburg, was down last week viewing the big river—and the result?

Mrs. J. A. Whit and Misses Adelie and Minnie, wife of Harrison, were in town last week.

Little Miss Nona Smith, of Hardinsburg, came over from Cincinnati and spent a day in town last week.

Rev. H. T. Lompton, after two days' absence in this city by the flood, got off for home yesterday on his way to Frankfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, an old citizen of this city, but now of Evansville, Ind., are here on a visit to his sister, Madeline Harris and Kasey.

Mr. L. W. Hunt, wife, of Covington, arrived here Saturday evening, and will remain with Mr. Milik Board and Mrs. Mrs. Stitt of Hardinsburg.

Mr. H. D. Justice, of Hardinsburg, passed through town Monday, en route to Fernand, Ky., to open duty as storekeeper at one of its distilleries there.

Mr. J. C. Morris and wife returned from Louisville Sunday. Mrs. Morris has been there under treatment for humerus fracture, the break being so severe that she could not walk.

Capt. A. Montgomery, of Covington, and Mrs. Holly Davis, of Cincinnati, have been here.

We are under obligations to the latter to thank him for the Louisville papers we had received for a week.

President Pierce came down Sunday and returned to Louisville Monday night in order to pulp the political situation. He has been reduced to the ranks of the syndicate, who will take charge next Friday.

The shooting scenes at Hardinsburg were the last to be taken in the sights of the flood. Judge Mercer and Dan Claude, Percy M. and Clark, of the Courier, were present.

Mr. H. G. Garrison, T. A. McJunkin, Jas. G. Hawley and son Johnnie, and Leslie Smith.

LOCAL REVIEWS.

The rink opens to-night.
Ferners are plowing for oats.

Two-cent postage after July 1st.
Empson's Caravans at Babcock's.

The town paid $3 for free frosting.

There were three deaths in town last week.

It is a muddy time in the flooded districts.

The new nickel has not yet made its appearance here.

Read Eddie Gregory's advertisement in another column.

Jack Mattingly killed two wild turkey gobblers last week.

A son was born to Mr. Geo. C. Younger Tuesday last week.

Try the Sailor Knot chewing tobacco.

The election for town trustees occurs next Monday, March 5.

Most of the flooded tobacco warehouses remained workable.

There were a hundred square in Cincinnati under water.

Good butter is very scarce, and is taken freely at 25 cents per pound.

August Partenhausen has gone to Hindenburg to open his new shop.

Mr. W. L. Temple has left the lower hotel property and moved to a new place.

Smithers are immediately active.

Camp, Whipping Cane, and Broachite.

It is said that red-headed girls are high-tensed, war-heated and cold-feated.

Courier-Journal dated February 17, reached here last Sunday, the 23rd instant.

The Woman's Missionary Society meets at the parsonage this evening at 3 o'clock.

Attend the prayer-meeting at the Elm-street Methodist church to-morrow night.

A river bottom farm is a mighty nice thing to have so long as it doesn't overflow.

For the benefit of the Phineas boys, we will say that the caboose is still standing.

Little Frank, a seven-year-old son of Mr. John H. McGaugh, died last Wednesday.

Mr. W. H. Corley, who got his leg broken several weeks ago, is getting along well.

Mr. Waldo Simon, of Tobington, will not again occupy his flooded dwelling in that village.

Saint, a little son of Hon. D. R. Murray, died in his mother's home in Covington, on February 23.

There were exported from this country during the month of January, 6,989,017 lbs. of wheat.

The O'Connell Boys have a cast of 500 boys and a month of Clover Hollow ready for the lower coast.

The Grey Eagle passed down Sunday morning, being the first boat from Louisville.

More than half the boats in the river.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

Mr. Virgil Hardin, of Holt, lost by the flood about one hundred bushels of corn and a number of feed bags. Judge D. W. Right is a heavy loser of hens.

Sleepless nights, make clear eyes that last night, while in China. China is the country for you. Sold by A. R. Baker, Choverport, and Beard, Beeler, Hardinsburg.

The bridge across this city and Hindsburgh is all in pretty bad condition, except the one over Town creek, which will here to be replaced by a new one.

You will suffer by Drygass' Lower Creek, which is all in pretty bad condition, except to you.

Sold by A. R. Fisher, Choverport, and Beard & Beeler, Hardinsburg.

Smith & Beard will resume carrying the mail between Hardinsburgh and Covington, between the two places at reasonable rates.

The boy is well, two feet deep, on the second floor of Mr. John Bennett's dwelling house in Stephenson. His daughter, Miss Lee, came very near losing her life.

Mr. W. S. Gabbert, of South Covington, was visiting his son, C. C. Gabbert, at Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, of Covington, were in town Monday, the guests of Dr. Mr. White.

Mr. J. R. Simons has been quite ill for the past three weeks, and is still confined to his bed.

Miss Nannie Jolly, of Hardinsburg, was down last week viewing the big river—and the result?

Mrs. J. A. Whit and Misses Adelie and Minnie, wife of Harrison, were in town last week.

Little Miss Nona Smith, of Hardinsburg, came over from Cincinnati and spent a day in town last week.

Rev. H. T. Lompton, after two days' absence in this city by the flood, got off for home yesterday on his way to Frankfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, an old citizen of this city, but now of Evansville, Ind., are here on a visit to his sister, Madeline Harris and Kasey.

Mr. L. W. Hunt, wife, of Covington, arrived here Saturday evening, and will remain with Mr. Milik Board and Mrs. Mrs. Stitt of Hardinsburg.

Mr. H. D. Justice, of Hardinsburg, passed through town Monday, en route to Fernand, Ky., to open duty as storekeeper at one of its distilleries there.

Mr. J. C. Morris and wife returned from Louisville Sunday. Mrs. Morris has been there under treatment for humerus fracture, the break being so severe that she could not walk.

Capt. A. Montgomery, of Covington, and Mrs. Holly Davis, of Cincinnati, have been here.

We are under obligations to the latter to thank him for the Louisville papers we had received for a week.

President Pierce came down Sunday and returned to Louisville Monday night in order to pulp the political situation. He has been reduced to the ranks of the syndicate, who will take charge next Friday.

The shooting scenes at Hardinsburg were the last to be taken in the sights of the flood. Judge Mercer and Dan Claude, Percy M. and Clark, of the Courier, were present.

Mr. H. G. Garrison, T. A. McJunkin, Jas. G. Hawley and son Johnnie, and Leslie Smith.

Local Revivals.

The rink opens to-night.

Ferners are plowing for oats.

Two-cent postage after July 1st.

Empson's Caravans at Babcock's.

The town paid $3 for free frosting.

There were three deaths in town last week.

It is a muddy time in the flooded districts.

The new nickel has not yet made its appearance here.

Read Eddie Gregory's advertisement in another column.

Jack Mattingly killed two wild turkey gobblers last week.

A son was born to Mr. Geo. C. Younger Tuesday last week.

Try the Sailor Knot chewing tobacco.

The election for town trustees occurs next Monday, March 5.

Most of the flooded tobacco warehouses remained workable.

There were a hundred square in Cincinnati under water.

Good butter is very scarce, and is taken freely at 25 cents per pound.

August Partenhausen has gone to Hindenburg to open his new shop.

Mr. W. L. Temple has left the lower hotel property and moved to a new place.

Smithers are immediately active.

Camp, Whipping Cane, and Broachite.

It is said that red-headed girls are high-tensed, war-heated and cold-feated.

Courier-Journal dated February 17, reached here last Sunday, the 23rd instant.

The Woman's Missionary Society meets at the parsonage this evening at 3 o'clock.

Attend the prayer-meeting at the Elm-street Methodist church to-morrow night.

A river bottom farm is a mighty nice thing to have so long as it doesn't overflow.

For the benefit of the Phineas boys, we will say that the caboose is still standing.

Little Frank, a seven-year-old son of Mr. John H. McGaugh, died last Wednesday.

Mr. W. H. Corley, who got his leg broken several weeks ago, is getting along well.

Mr. Waldo Simon, of Tobington, will not again occupy his flooded dwelling in that village.

Saint, a little son of Hon. D. R. Murray, died in his mother's home in Covington, on February 23.

There were exported from this country during the month of January, 6,989,017 lbs. of wheat.

The O'Connell Boys have a cast of 500 boys and a month of Clover Hollow ready for the lower coast.

The Grey Eagle passed down Sunday morning, being the first boat from Louisville.

More than half the boats in the river.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

Mr. Malina Cunningham died at Louisville on Friday, a most excellent lady, and sister to Dr. T. N. Warfield, of this city.

Mr. A. E. Fisher had his presence in town more by the grace of God than man's wisdom, and died not less than 200.

At 10 o'clock a.m. on the 22nd the river was exactly at the point it was at when it rose on the same day last year, when it was at the high-water mark.

School commissioner Judge Board was making his visit to the schools in this section last week. He reports them in good working order.

